

CLAMP EXHIBITION

July 3 (Wed), 2024 - September 23 (Mon), 2024
The National Art Center, Tokyo

Exhibition Overview

We will present an exhibition tracing the trajectory of CLAMP, a creative collective of four women who produce diverse manga across various genres including boys', girls', and young men's comics.

The exhibition will primarily showcase original manga drawings from their debut to the present day, created for a wide range of publishers and magazines. This major mid-career retrospective revisits messages that CLAMP has conveyed over the years in works that have long captivated readers of all ages, genders and nationalities.

Exhibition Highlights

Explore the worlds of the creative collective CLAMP through seven themed areas: "COLOR," "LOVE," "ADVENTURE," "MAGIC," "PHRASE," "IMAGINATION," and "DREAM."

- A collection of around 800 original artworks, the largest ever, showcasing CLAMP's breathtaking skills

In addition to brilliant color illustrations covering 23 works from their debut in 1989 to their latest work, manuscripts from their main manga series will also be on display.

- An exhibition showcasing the diverse themes of CLAMP's worlds

Seven themes related to CLAMP will be introduced, showcasing various aspects across their works.

Along with original artwork, the exhibition will feature special movie and interactive displays to provide a deeper immersion into the world of CLAMP.

- The first public exhibition of valuable materials and newly drawn illustration

Valuable setting materials and original drawings highlighting CLAMP's creative activities beyond manga will be exhibited. Additionally, color illustration specially drawn for this exhibition will be on display.
